

REVISING

“Revision is Structural”

- Make sure that your writing makes sense, that everything is in the right order, that all-important details are in place.
- Revision of a piece of writing looks like:
 - Taking information out
 - Putting new information in
 - Changing wording
 - Moving things around
 - Ensuring a strong lead and a good ending
 - Changing the point of view
 - Starting over

“You don’t need to be sick to get better”

